Relationships with Australian Parliaments

You and your guests are invited to hear Steve Chadwick, MP and Chris Eichbaum discuss "Relationships with Australian and other Parliaments". Increasingly, connections with other jurisdictions are not just the preserve of the Executive but also involve Parliaments. This particularly applies to Australia, at both the federal and state levels, as the single economic market brings the two countries closer together. The seminar will be chaired by Colin James.

There will be an opportunity for questions.
